Directions: Identify a situation and the character or characters involved. Determine the influence of power. Some things you could consider: What is the influence of power on the individual? What does this tell us about the influence of power on society?

Support your conclusion with specific evidence from the text, and include the page number.

Character(s)/Situation	Influence of Power	Textual Evidence