

Why is writing important?

- It's a way of communication,
- it teaches children fundamentals,
- it's expressive,
- it improves reading and writing skills,
- also improves speaking.

Why is reading important?

- Reading can be important because it helps improve how fast the mind can think.
- Reading is important because it helps us to comprehend things around us. Such as signs on the street and things in school.
- Reading is a bunch of letters that we put together and read. We can also read people and pictures and it helps us use math equations.

Why would we need reading?

- Reading is needed to help read faster so if you need to read a contract. you can read it faster and understand it in a reasonable way.
- Reading is needed because it helps improve the speed of the mind.
- reading is also needed to help you understand the things around you.
- without reading the gov. might not be able to exist or think.

Why would we need writing?

- We need writing because of writing letters to people and to fill out job applications.
- Writing reports or filling out paper work.
- For salesmen and retails you have to know how to write.
- Once you receive a job, you have to go through orientation. Taking notes, and applying them.
- Instructions of making things.
- Writing makes things easier to comprehend.
- Writing is often used to remember things, such as to-do lists, schedules, and notes.