Here is a sample note:

Website/Book title: Africans in America, Part 2.
Title of article or website page: People & Events: Maroons in the Revolutionary period
        1775 - 1783
Website address: http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/aia/part2/2p50.html
Date: 8/17/12

Quote you want to use or information you want to incorporate:
As early as the 1650s, enslaved Africans escaped into the American wilderness to form their own separate communities -- a New World adaptation of an African form of resistance. These maroons (or outlyers, as they were often called in North America) set up small communities in swamps or other areas where they were not likely to be discovered.