A Wagner-Meerwein rearrangement is any reaction in which the carbon skeleton of a reactant changes due to one or more rearrangements involving carbocations, e.g.:

\[
\text{mechanism:}
\]

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)