A 1,2-alkyl shift is a carbocation rearrangement in which an alkyl group migrates to the carbon atom bearing the formal charge of +1 (carbon 2) from an adjacent carbon atom (carbon 1), e.g.

![1,2-alkyl shift diagram]

see also 1,2-hydride shift, 1,2-aryl shift

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)