A 1,2-aryl shift is a carbocation rearrangement in which an aryl group in a carbocation migrates to the carbon atom bearing the formal charge of +1 (carbon 2) from an adjacent carbon atom (carbon 1). eg:

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)