An alkyl carbocation is a carbocation that has the structural formula of an alkyl group.

eg:

!Methyl carbocation

!Tertiary butyl carbocation

Alkyl carbocations are the most common carbocations; the term carbocation is casually used to mean alkyl carbocation.

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)