An aprotic solvent is a solvent the molecule of which contains no hydrogen atoms capable of participating in hydrogen bonding.

eg:

- CH₃CN
  - acetonitrile
- CH₃SCH₃
  - dimethylsulfoxide (DMSO)
- CH₃(CH₂)₄CH₃
  - hexane
- CH₃CH₂OCH₂CH₃
  - diethyl ether

see also protic solvent

---

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)