An aryl halide or haloarene is a compound the molecule of which has one or more halogen atoms bonded to a benzene ring.

eg:

see also alkyl halide, alkenyl halide

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site ([Utah Valley University](http://Utah Valley University))