A lactone or cyclic ester is a carboxylic acid ester in the molecule of which the ligand on the carbonyl carbon and that on the oxygen atom are linked by one or more carbon chains. E.g.

!Chemical structures

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)