A cycloalkane is a saturated hydrocarbon whose molecule contains one or more closed carbon chains and may also contain open carbon chains (see alkane). A closed carbon chain, also known as a ring or cycle, is one whose terminals cannot be identified.

eg:

![Cycloalkane diagrams]

see also alkane

---

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)