An enolizable ester is a carboxylic acid ester whose molecule has one or more alpha hydrogens.

eg:

!Chemical structures

see also non-enolizable ester

---

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)