The anion formed when an alpha hydrogen is removed as a proton from an enolizable ester is called an ester enolate.

eg. 1:

!Diagram 1

eg. 2:

!Diagram 2

---

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site ([Utah Valley University](http://Utah Valley University))