The reaction of an aryl ester with a Lewis acid catalyst followed by an aqueous acid to give phenols is known as Fries rearrangement.

eg:

mechanism:

1. Initial ester formation
2. Catalyst activation
3. Acceptor addition
4. Rearrangement
5. Product formation
see also Friedel-Crafts acylation

Contributors and Attributions

- [Gamini Gunawardena](Utah Valley University)](OChemPal site)