Functional isomers are constitutional isomers bearing different functional groups.

eg. 1: Acetone (1) and propanal (2) are constitutional isomers.

They contain different functional groups.

Thus, 1 and 2 are functional isomers.

- see also skeletal isomers, positional isomers

---

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)