A hexose is a monosaccharide whose molecule contains six carbon atoms.

eg:

![Chemical structures of D-glucose and D-fructose]

see also triose, tetrose, pentose

---

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the [OChemPal site](http://Utah Valley University)