An internal alkyne is an alkyne in whose molecule there are no hydrogen atoms bonded to triply bonded carbon atoms.

eg:

see also terminal alkyne

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)