A low-resolution mass spectrum is a mass spectrum in which the mass-to-charge ratios of the cations are calculated using their nominal masses.

see also high-resolution mass spectrum

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)