A methyl ketone is a ketone in the molecule of which one ligand on the carbonyl carbon is a methyl group.

eg:

- !Methyl ketone structure 1
- !Methyl ketone structure 2
- !Methyl ketone structure 3
- !Methyl ketone structure 4

see also haloform reaction

---

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University