A primary allylic carbocation is an allylic carbocation in each resonance form of which the formal charge of +1 is on a primary carbon.

eg:

![Chemical structure diagram showing a primary allylic carbocation with a formal charge of +1 on a primary carbon.]

See also secondary allylic carbocation, tertiary allylic carbocation

---

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)