A primary ($1^\circ$) amide is an amide in the molecule of which the nitrogen atom is bonded to only one carbon atom.

eg:

!Primary amides

see also secondary amide, tertiary amide

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)