A primary (1º) benzylic carbocation is a benzylic carbocation in which the positively charged benzylic carbon is a primary carbon.

eg. 1:

```
| benzylic carbon; primary carbon |
```

eg. 2:

```
| benzylic carbon; primary carbon |
```

see also secondary benzylic carbocation, tertiary benzylic carbocation

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)