A primary (1°) hydrogen is a hydrogen atom residing on a primary carbon in an organic species.

eg:

!Chemical structure

see also secondary hydrogen, tertiary hydrogen

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)