A secondary (2°) amide is an amide in the molecule of which the nitrogen atom is bonded to two carbon atoms.

eg:

!Structures of secondary amides

see also primary amide, tertiary amide

---

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)