A tertiary (3º) benzylic carbocation is a benzylic carbocation in which the positively charged benzylic carbon is a tertiary carbon.

eg. 1:

eg. 2:

See also primary benzylic carbocation and secondary benzylic carbocation.

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)