The compound obtained by replacing the hydroxymethyl group (CH$_2$OH) in the molecule of an aldose with a carboxylic acid group is called a uronic acid.

eg:

!Diagram of uronic acid formation

see also aldonic acid, aldaric acid, alditol

---

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)