The Wittig reaction is the reaction of a Wittig reagent with an aldehyde or a ketone to afford an alkene as the organic product.

eg:

\[
\text{\includegraphics[width=0.5\textwidth]{wittig_reaction.png}}
\]

Mechanism:

\[
\text{\includegraphics[width=0.5\textwidth]{wittig_mechanism.png}}
\]

Contributors

- Gamini Gunawardena from the OChemPal site (Utah Valley University)