Chloroprocaine (trade name Nesacaine, Nesacaine-MPF) (often in the hydrochloride salt form as the aforementioned trade names) is a local anesthetic given by injection during surgical procedures and labor and delivery. Chloroprocaine vasodilates; this is in contrast to cocaine which vasoconstrics. Chloroprocaine is an ester anesthetic.

Read more... Edit at Wikipedia...

Other names

2-(Diethylamino)ethyl 4-amino-2-chlorobenzoate (IUPAC Name); 4-Amino-2-chlorobenzoic Acid 2-(Diethylamino)ethyl Ester; 2-(Diethylamino)ethyl ester 4-amino-2-chloro-benzoic acid